Neonatology Opportunity

Alabama Neonatal Medicine, PC has an opportunity for a full-time board-certified/eligible neonatologist to replace a senior partner who plans to retire. This opportunity is with a thriving and busy neonatal practice that is clinically and professionally challenging, but which also places a premium on a satisfying personal and family lifestyle.

Alabama Neonatal Medicine, PC has been providing neonatal care for almost twenty years and is the only neonatology practice in Montgomery. This practice provides a comprehensive range of neonatal services to three hospitals including the Regional NICU which accepts referrals from South and Central Alabama. The practice enjoys a good working relationship with local pediatricians and obstetricians. The position offers generous and competitive salary and benefits.

About Baptist Health and Montgomery

Baptist Health, a three-hospital system affiliated with the UAB Health System, has a collegial, supportive medical staff of more than 500 members. All committed to providing the best health care possible to our community while upholding the faith-based mission of the organization. With substantial growth in the region, we anticipate increasing demand over the next several years. The tri-county area has a population of approximately 325,000 residents and a draw area of over 600,000. Baptist Health offers a full array of specialty services.

Montgomery is the second largest community in the state of Alabama and offers a wide variety of recreational, cultural, and educational opportunities. The Montgomery area can provide a future for both professional and personal growth, as well as provide a wonderful atmosphere for families in which to live. For those whose passion is the great outdoors, there is no better place to be than Montgomery. The area offers an abundance of activities, including sporting and cultural events, two beautiful lakes and a Robert Trent Jones golf course. As the capital of Alabama, Montgomery is located in the central part of the state on the banks of the Alabama River, some 92 miles south of Birmingham and in easy driving distance to Atlanta and the beautiful gulf coast beaches.
